

#MASKS

THROUGHOUT COVID-19

Twitter Sentiment Analysis

EXPERT SENTIMENT OVER TIME

"Seriously people- STOP BUYING MASKS! They are NOT effective in preventing general public from catching #Coronavirus..."

@Surgeon_General
2020.02.29

"...wearing a mask is completely safe. As an anesthesiologist, I wear a mask all day long to protect my patients..."

@Surgeon_General
2020.05.23

-0.7536

Vader Sentiment Score

0.7257

DATE RANGE

January 1, 2020

-

May 31, 2020

SEARCH TERMS

(mask OR masks)

+

(covid OR covid19 OR corona OR coronavirus)

TOTAL TWEETS

5,000 tweets/day
(580,000)

OTHER INFO

Num of likes

Num of replies

Num of retweets

TARGET!

ROADMAP

1

Scrape and Prep
Data

2

Target Variable
Creation

3

Exploratory Data
Analysis

4

Feature Engineering

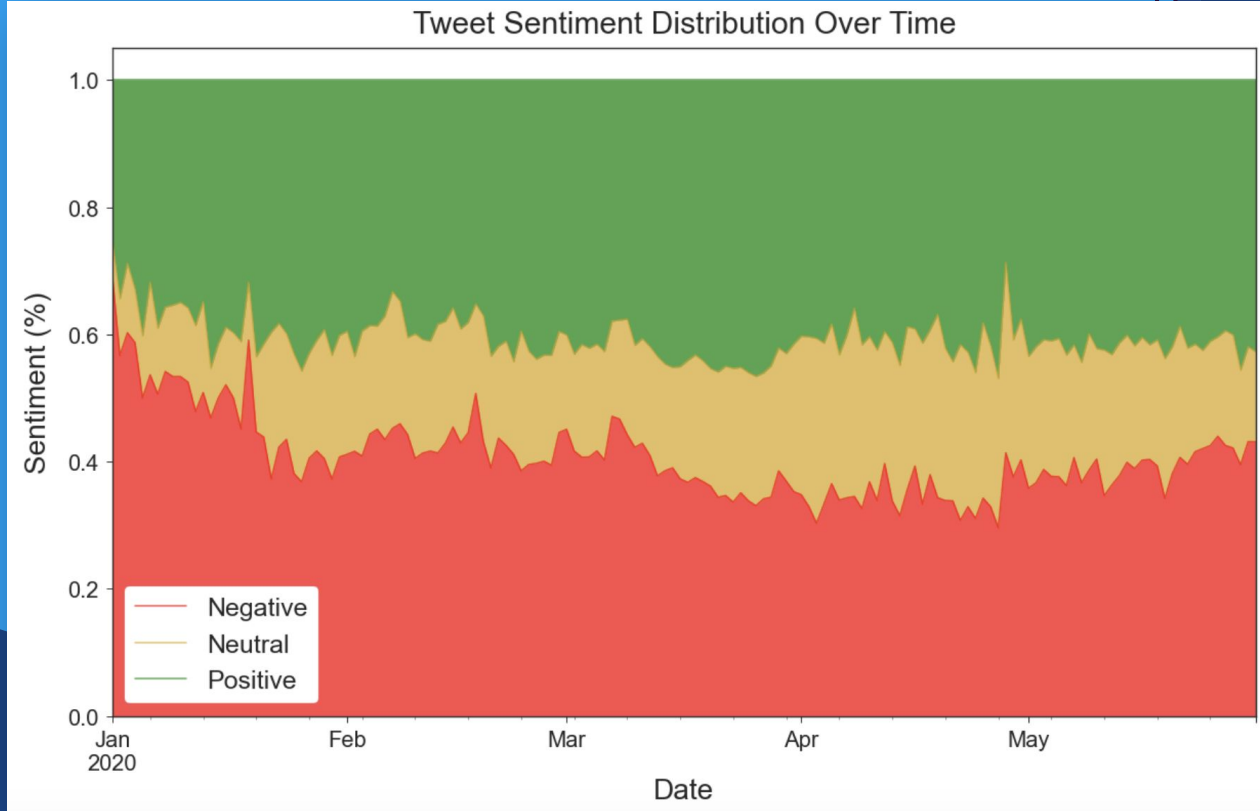

5

Prediction Modeling

Number of Tweets with "mask", January - March

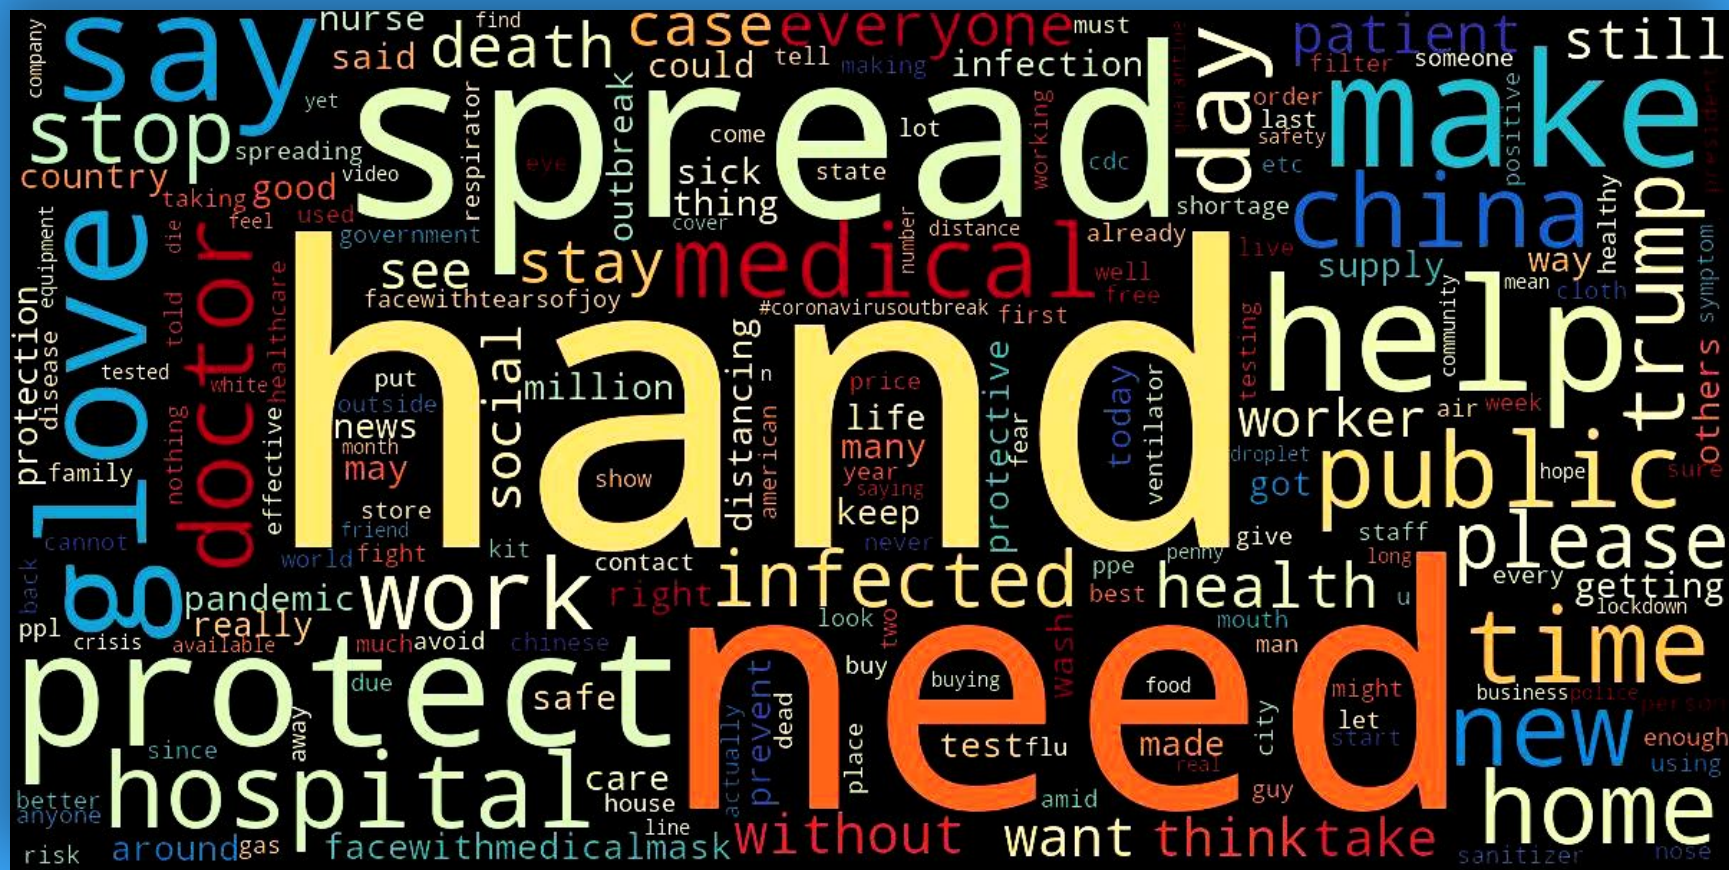

NLP FEATURES AND ANALYSIS

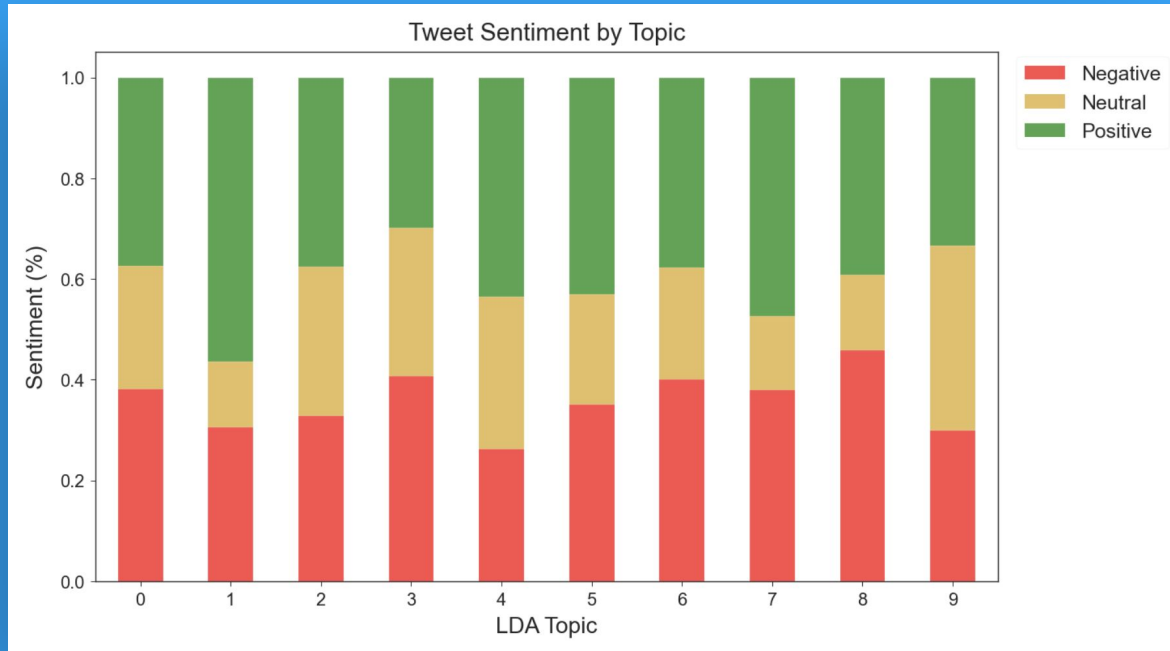

Text cleaning, topic modeling, subjectivity scoring

Top 25 Words

0. Healthcare workers, hospitals
1. Social distancing
2. Protesting, lockdowns
3. Government, health organizations
4. Spreading the virus
5. Emojis, swear words
6. COVID19 statistics
7. Preventing infection
8. General opinions
9. Riots, BLM

TOPIC MODELING

PREDICTION MODEL FEATURE IMPORTANCE

IMPORTANT FEATURES

'#fight'
'incompetence'

ACCURACY

70.1%

F1 SCORE

69.9%

Naive Bayes

IMPORTANT FEATURES

Subjectivity score
Number of likes
'protect'
'help'

ACCURACY

72.3%

F1 SCORE

72.4%

Decision Tree

TAKEAWAYS AND FUTURE CONSIDERATIONS

Overall sentiment is fairly divided

Unexpected feature importance

Try a deep learning model

Opinion mining toward “mask(s)”

QUESTIONS?

